MISSIONS

Mission 3026-02: Where da White Witches at?
Near the White Witches deployment zone, Barlow's End, Federated Suns
September 27, 3026
Pilot Skill: 4-5

Okay boys, listen up! Here's the deal. Remember how I said that the forces on planet were a mishmash of various mercenary companies due to the Feds having moved a bunch of troops around for some military operation they're running? Well, it turns out that coordination between these groups hasn't been great, and one of the units, known as "The White Witches" has gotten into some trouble. The snakes, showing more tactical acumen than usual, have decided to attempt a "divide and conquer" strategy, and it's workin' pretty well. They've managed to basically overrun the White Witches' camp. Because of that, our job is to help relieve one group of witches that got separated from the rest. I think the Light Horse, who are basically running this operation would like us to work together a little better, and this is a great opportunity. The Witches are approaching the Shaw river from the north, being chased by a large contingent of Snakes. They're fording the river here at grid point Alpha – which would be fine except for the fact that there's a lance or so of Combine units here on the south side. So there's the problem – they can't go back, or they'll get slaughtered, but right now they're having some trouble going forwards, too. Our job is to help them cross that river.

Map: This map should be mostly on one side of a one or two hex wide river, with at least enough space on the other side for the White Witches to set up. If using the recommended map to the left, replace all depth 0 water hexes with depth 1.

Recommended Maps:

- 1: Streams
- 2: 2018_01 Front Open Terrain 3
- 3: 2018 Woodland

Setup: The White Witches (See Special Rules) set up anywhere on the leftmost map (Streams), followed by the Combine units setting up anywhere on the center map. No two combine units can set up within 3 hexes of each other. The PCs will enter from the right side of the rightmost map (Woodland) on turn 1.

Special Rules

NPCs: The PCs are attempting to rescue two wayward members of the White Witches mercenary company. These two units are:

Name	Variant	Gunnery/Piloting	Reference	BV	Cost
Centurion	CN9-A	4/5	3039 pg. 202	945	3,491,500

Name	Variant	Gunnery/Piloting	Reference	BV	Cost
Rifleman	RFL-3N	4/5	3039 pg. 477	1039	4,860,000

The White Witch 'mechs are an independent command from the heroes, and optimally would be played by a different player. However, if that's not possible they should be distributed among the PCs. The White Witches BV does not count as part of the PCs BV total for calculating OPFOR.

Combat is not easy on these things, is it? Both of the White Witches 'mechs are damaged. They each start with 30 points of damage, in 5 point groups. Any damage that would breach a location is reduced so that that location has 1 point of armor left. They have also expended ammunition. For each ammo using weapon, roll 2d6. They have used up that much ammunition, possibly depleting their stores.

Mission Objectives: The heroes win if either White Witch 'mech escapes the field off of the right edge of the map. The bonus objective requires both white witch mechs to escape. A White Witch 'mech is considered to have "escaped" if it makes it off of the right side of the map, or if there are no functional Combine 'mechs left at the end of the game. A White witch 'mech cannot escape if it is immobilized or destroyed, or if the pilot is killed.

Award (C-Bills)	Mech Survived	Mech Severely Damaged	Mech Destroyed
At least one White Witch 'mech escapes (Success)	350,000	250,000	100,000
Both White Witch 'mechs escape (Bonus Condition)	+100,000	+100,000	+100,000
Neither White Witch 'mech escapes (Loss)	150,000	100,000	50,000

Award (XP)	Pilot Survived	Pilot Killed
At least one White Witch 'mech escapes (Success)	15	5
Neither White Witch 'mech escapes (Loss)	8	3
Opposing 'Mech/Combat Vehicle destroyed by party	+1	+1

Additional Rewards

The heroes unlock any surviving White Witch 'mechs.

Where da White Witches at?

Near the White Witches deployment zone, Barlow's End, Federated Suns

September 27, 3026

Perhaps not at all surprisingly, you once again find yourself at “Barlow’s Beginning”. “The Beginning”, as you’ve learned the locals call it, is your prototypical mechwarrior bar, normally catering to the local AFFS forces. Since you guys are currently bivouacked at the Militia base across the street from it, however, the bar is now effectively yours.

Aidan, the bartender, stands behind the bar in that stereotypical pose of all bartenders, hip slightly akimbo and drying a mug with a towel in a way that says “yup, I know we’ve got over a millennia of machines capable of doing this, but if I don’t dry this mug this way I won’t know what to do with my hands”. After he pulls your beers, he says:

“Hey, so a coupla’ mercs came by today – White Witches, I think. Anyway, they said they were lookin’ for you. Said they’d come back when I said you weren’t here. I’m not going to have any trouble, am I?” Once he’s confident he won’t he goes back to his drying duties. About a third of a beer later, the door opens, revealing a pair of mercenaries wearing ‘Witches togs. They seat themselves in your booth and order a round.

“Hey look, we really owe you guys one for today. I know we probably weren’t the nicest when y’all first got here, but you guys did us a solid, so we’re going to return the favor. We don’t know much – the ELH like to keep us in the dark as much as you guys, but we do know for certain that the snakes aren’t just here to steal some parts and enjoy the scenery. It looks like two things are going on: First, they’re doing some weird joint training with Wolf’s Dragoons, and second they’re here looking for something called the “Achernar proving grounds”. Apparently the Feds have some kind of military R&D facility here, and the snakes have caught wind of it. Anyway – just thought you should know. Looks like we’re in for more than just your usual garrison mission here.”

Where da White Witches at?

Near the White Witches deployment zone, Barlow's End, Federated Suns

September 27, 3026

Perhaps not at all surprisingly, you once again find yourself at “Barlow’s Beginning”. “The Beginning”, as you’ve learned the locals call it, is your prototypical mechwarrior bar, normally catering to the local AFFS forces. Since you guys are currently bivouacked at the Militia base across the street from it, however, the bar is now effectively yours.

Aidan, the bartender, stands behind the bar in that stereotypical pose of all bartenders, hip slightly akimbo and drying a mug with a towel in a way that says “yup, I know we’ve got over a millennia of machines capable of doing this, but if I don’t dry this mug this way I won’t know what to do with my hands”. After he pulls your beers, he says:

“Hey, so a coupla’ mercs came by today – White Witches, I think. Anyway, they said they were lookin’ for you. Said they’d come back when I said you weren’t here. I’m not going to have any trouble, am I?” Once he’s confident he won’t he goes back to his drying duties. About a third of a beer later, the door opens, revealing a pair of mercenaries wearing ‘Witches togs. They seat themselves in your booth and order a round.

“Hey look, we really owe you guys one for today. I know we probably weren’t the nicest when y’all first got here, but you guys did us a solid, so we’re going to return the favor. We don’t know much – the ELH like to keep us in the dark as much as you guys, but we do know for certain that the snakes aren’t just here to steal some parts and enjoy the scenery. It looks like two things are going on: First, they’re doing some weird joint training with Wolf’s Dragoons, and second they’re here looking for something called the “Achernar proving grounds”. Apparently the Feds have some kind of military R&D facility here, and the snakes have caught wind of it. Anyway – just thought you should know. Looks like we’re in for more than just your usual garrison mission here.”
